Label Works Earns Certificate of Excellence at 2015 American Package Design Awards

North Mankato, Minn. – March 26, 2015 –Minnesota-based leader in wholesale label printing honored by Graphic Design USA in their packaging awards competition.

Label Works, a leader in wholesale label printing based in North Mankato, Minnesota, is pleased to announce that they have been honored by Graphic Design USA (GDUSA) in the 2015 American Package Design Awards.

For more than fifty years, GDUSA has sponsored design competitions, and the American Package Design Awards is the fastest-growing competition in this decade. This year's competition received over 2000 entries, of which roughly 15 percent were recognized as winners.

Label Works was honored with a certificate of excellence for a series of Whiskey Bottom Candle labels printed for Octavo Designs. The three label variations included were for the Hot Tottie, Whiskey Barrel, and Cranberry Smash candle varieties, and a back label was also included.

"We're honored to be recognized by Graphic Design USA," said Bill Rose, General Manager. "We're proud of every order we produce, and we appreciate being recognized for our efforts. What matters most is that our customers can continue to put their trust in us as their print partner."
